- (b) If a dispute is not resolved by mediation within 3 months of the referral to a community justice centre, the dispute is to be referred to arbitration.
- (c) The Commercial Arbitration Act 1984 applies to any such dispute referred to arbitration.

18 Disciplining of members

- 18.1 A complaint may be made to the committee by any person that a member of the association:
- (a) has repeatedly refused or neglected to comply with a provision or provisions of this constitution, or
 - (b) has repeatedly and wilfully acted in a manner prejudicial to the interests of the association, or
 - (c) has refused or neglected to comply with a provision or provisions set out in the bylaws.
- 18.2 The committee may refuse to deal with a complaint if it considers the complaint to be trivial or vexatious in nature.
- 18.3 If the committee decides to deal with a complaint, the committee:
- (a) must cause notice of the complaint to be served on the member concerned; and
 - (b) must give the member at least 14 days from the time the notice is served within which to make submissions to the committee in connection with the complaint, and
 - (c) must take into consideration any submissions made by the member in connection with the complaint.
- 18.4 The committee may, by resolution, expel the member from the association or suspend the member from membership of the association if, after considering the complaint and any submissions made in connection with the complaint, it is satisfied that the facts alleged in the complaint have been proved and the expulsion or suspension is warranted in the circumstances.
- 18.5 If the committee expels or suspends a member, the secretary must, within 7 days after the action is taken, cause written notice to be given to the member of the action taken, of the reasons given by the committee for having taken that action and of the member's right of appeal under clause 19.
- 18.6 The expulsion or suspension does not take effect:
- (a) until the expiration of the period within which the member is entitled to appeal against the resolution concerned, or
 - (b) if within that period the member exercises the right of appeal, unless and until the association confirms the resolution under clause 19.5,
- whichever is the latter.

19 Right of appeal of disciplined member

- 19.1 A member may appeal to the association in general meeting against a resolution of the committee under clause 18, within 7 days after notice of the resolution is served on the member, by lodging with the secretary a notice to that effect.
- 19.2 The notice may, but need not, be accompanied by a statement of the grounds on which the member intends to rely for the purposes of the appeal.

- 19.3 On receipt of a notice from a member under clause 19.1, the secretary must notify the committee which is to convene a general meeting of the association to be held within 28 days after the date on which the secretary received the notice.
- 19.4 At a general meeting of the association convened under clause 19.3:
- (a) no business other than the question of the appeal is to be transacted, and
 - (b) the committee and the member must be given the opportunity to state their respective cases orally or in writing, or both, and
 - (c) the members present are to vote by secret ballot on the question of whether the resolution should be confirmed or revoked.
- 19.5 The appeal is to be determined by a simple majority of votes cast by members of the association present.

26 Removal of committee member

- 26.1 The association in general meeting may by resolution remove any member of the committee from the office of member before the expiration of the member's term of office and may by resolution appoint another person to hold office until the expiration of the term of office of the member so removed.
- 26.2 If a member of the committee to whom a proposed resolution referred to in subclause 26.1 relates makes representations in writing to the secretary or president (not exceeding a reasonable length) and requests that the representation be notified to the members of the association, the secretary or the president may send a copy of the representations to each member of the association or, if the representations are not so sent, the member is entitled to require that the representations be read out at the meeting at which the resolution is considered.

27 Committee meetings and quorum

- 27.1 The committee must meet at least 12 times in each period of 12 months at such place and time as the committee may determine.
- 27.2 Additional meetings of the committee may be convened by the president or by any member of the committee.
- 27.3 Oral or written notice of a meeting of the committee must be given by the secretary to each member of the committee at least 48 hours (or such other period as many be unanimously agreed on by the members of the committee) before the time appointed for the holding of the meeting.

- 27.4 Notice of a meeting given under subclause 27.3 must specify the general nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting and no business other than that business is to be transacted at the meeting, except business which the committee members present at the meeting unanimously agree to treat as urgent business.
- 27.5 Any 3 members of the committee constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of a meeting of the committee.
- 27.6 No business is to be transacted by the committee unless a quorum is present and if, within half an hour of the time appointed for the meeting, a quorum is not present, the meeting is to stand adjourned to the same place and at the same hour of the same day in the following week.
- 27.7 If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour of the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting is to be dissolved.
- 27.8 At a meeting of the committee:
 - (a) the president or, in the president's absence, the vice-president is to preside, or
 - (b) if the president and the vice-president are absent or unwilling to act, such one of the remaining members of the committee as may be chosen by the members present at the meeting is to preside.

28 Delegation by committee to sub-committee

- 28.1 The committee may, by instrument in writing, delegate to one or more sub-committees (consisting of such member or members of the association as the committee thinks fit) the exercise of such of the functions of the committee as are specified in the instrument, other than:
 - (a) this power of delegation, and
 - (b) a function which is a duty imposed on the committee by the Act or by any other law.
- 28.2 A function the exercise of which has been delegated to a sub-committee under this rule may, while the delegation remains unrevoked, be exercised from time to time by the sub-committee in accordance with the terms of the delegation.
- 28.3 A delegation under this section may be made subject to such conditions or limitations as to the exercise of any function, or as to time or circumstances, as may be specified in the instrument of delegation.
- 28.4 Despite any delegation under this clause, the committee may continue to exercise any function delegated.

- 28.5 Any act or thing done or suffered by a sub-committee acting in the exercise of a delegation under this rule has the same force and effect as it would have if it had been done or suffered by the committee.
- 28.6 The committee may, by instrument in writing, revoke wholly or in part any delegation under this clause.
- 28.7 A sub-committee may meet and adjourn, as it thinks proper.

29 Voting and decisions

- 29.1 Questions arising at a meeting of the committee or of any sub-committee appointed by the committee are to be determined by a majority of the votes of members of the committee or sub-committee present at the meeting.
- 29.2 Each member present at a meeting of the committee or of any sub-committee appointed by the committee (including the person presiding at the meeting) is entitled to one vote but, in the event of an equality of votes on any question, the person presiding may exercise a second or casting vote.
- 29.3 Subject to clause 27.5, the committee may act despite any vacancy on the committee.
- 29.4 Any act or thing done or suffered, or purporting to have been done or suffered, by the committee or by a sub-committee appointed by the committee, is valid and effectual despite any defect that may afterwards be discovered in the appointment or qualification of any member of the committee or sub-committee.

 - (c) must be lodged with the secretary, and
 - (d) may consist of several documents in a similar form, each signed by one or more of the members making the requisition.
- 33.4 If the committee fails to convene a special general meeting to be held within 1 month after that date on which a requisition of members for the meeting is lodged with the secretary, any one or more of the members who made the requisition may convene a special general meeting to be held not later than 3 months after that date.
- 33.5 A special general meeting convened by a member or members as referred to in subclause 33.4 must be convened as nearly as is practicable in the same manner as general meetings are convened by the committee.

33 Notice

- 33.1 Except if the nature of the business proposed to be dealt with at a general meeting requires a special resolution of the association, the secretary must, at least 14 days before the date fixed for the holding of the general meeting, give a notice to each member specifying the place, date and time of the meeting and the nature of the business proposed to be transacted at the meeting.
- 33.2 If the nature of the business proposed to be dealt with at a general meeting requires a special resolution of the association, the secretary must, at least 21 days before the date fixed for the holding of the general meeting, cause notice to be given to each member specifying, in addition to the matter required under subclause 33.1, the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution.
- 33.3 No business other than that specified in the notice convening a general meeting is to be transacted at the meeting except, in the case of an annual general meeting, business which may be transacted under clause 31.2.
- 33.4 A member desiring to bring any business before a general meeting may give notice in writing of that business to the secretary who must include that business in the next notice calling a general meeting given after receipt of the notice from the member.

34 Quorum at General Meetings

- 34.1 No item of business is to be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum of members entitled under this constitution to vote is present during the time the meeting is considering that item.
- 34.2 Ten members present in person (being members entitled under this constitution to vote at a general meeting) constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of a general meeting.
- 34.3 If within half an hour after the appointed time for the commencement of a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting:
 - (a) if convened on the requisition of members, is to be dissolved, and
 - (b) in any other case, is to stand adjourned to the same day in the following week at the same time and (unless another place is specified at the time of the adjournment by the person presiding at the meeting or communicated by written notice to members given before the day to which the meeting is adjourned) at the same place.
- 34.4 If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour after the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, the members present (being at least 5) is to constitute a quorum.

35 Presiding member

- 35.1 The President or, in the President's absence, the Vice-President, is to preside as chairperson at each general meeting of the association.
- 35.2 If the President and the Vice-President are absent or unwilling to act, the members present must elect one of their number to preside as chairperson at the meeting.

36 Adjournment

- 36.1 The chairperson of a general meeting at which a quorum is present may, with the consent of the majority of members present at the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and place to place, but no business is to be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting at which the adjournment took place.
- 36.2 If a general meeting is adjourned for 14 days or more, the secretary must give written or oral notice of the adjourned meeting to each member of the association stating the place, date and time of the meeting and the nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting.
- 36.3 Except as provided in subclauses 36.1 and 36.2, notice of an adjournment of a general meeting or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting is not required to be given.

37 Making of decisions

- 37.1 A question arising at a general meeting of the association is to be determined by either;
- (a) A show of hands, or
 - (b) if on the motion of the chairperson or if 5 or more members present at the meeting decide that the question should be determined by a written ballot—a written ballot.
- 37.2 If the question is to be determined by a show of hands, a declaration by the chairperson that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been carried or carried unanimously or carried by a particular majority or lost, or an entry to that effect in the minute book of the association, is evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favor of or against that resolution.
- 37.3 If the question is to be determined by a written ballot, the ballot is to be conducted in accordance with the directions of the chairperson.

38 Special resolution

A special resolution may only be passed by the association in accordance with section 39 of the Act.

39 Voting

- 39.1 On any question arising at a general meeting of the association a member has one vote only.
- 39.2 In the case of an equality of votes on a question at a general meeting, the chairperson of the meeting is entitled to exercise a second or casting vote.
- 39.3 A member or proxy is not entitled to vote at any general meeting of the association unless all money due and payable by the member proxy to the association has been paid.
- 39.4 A member is not entitled to vote at any general meeting of the association if the member is under 18 years of age.

40 Proxy votes

A proxy is a person authorized to vote on behalf of another person.

- (a) Proxy voting may be undertaken at or in respect of a general meeting.
- (b) The person holding the proxy vote must be a member of the association or a proxy vote can be held by committee on your behalf.
- (c) Only one proxy vote may be held by a member.
- (d) For a proxy form to be valid, it must be received by the Secretary no less than one week prior to the general meeting.

Note: Schedule 1 of the Act provides that an association's constitution is to address whether members of the association are entitled to vote by proxy at general meetings.

41 Postal ballots

- 41.1 The association may hold a postal ballot and / or electronic ballot to determine any issue or proposal (other than an appeal under clause 19).
- 41.2 The election of office bearers and ordinary committee members is to be conducted by postal ballot and / or electronic ballot.
- 41.3 A postal ballot and / or electronic ballot is to be conducted in accordance with Schedule 3 to the Regulation.

Part 6 Miscellaneous

The association may effect and maintain insurance.

43 Funds – source

- 43.1 The funds of the association are to be derived from entrance fees and annual subscription fees of members, donations and, subject to any resolution passed by the association in general meeting, such other sources as the committee determines.
- 43.2 All money received by the association must be deposited as soon as practicable and without deduction to the credit of the association's bank or other authorized deposit-taking institution account.
- 43.3 The association must, as soon as practicable after receiving any money, issue an appropriate receipt.

44 Funds – management

- 44.1 Subject to any resolution passed by the association in general meeting, the funds of the association are to be used in pursuance of the objects of the association in such manner as the committee determines.
- 44.2 All cheques, drafts, bills of exchange, promissory notes and other negotiable instruments must be signed by any 2 members of the committee or employees of the association, being members authorised to do so by the committee.
- 44.3 As of 2012 a full audit of the association's financial books is to take place:
 - (a) every 2 years, or
 - (b) when there is a change of treasurer.

45 Change of name, objects and constitution

The statement of objects and these rules may be altered, rescinded or added to only by a special resolution of the association.

46 Custody of books

Except as otherwise provided by this constitution, the public officer must keep in his or her custody or under his or her control all records, books and other documents relating to the association.

47 Inspection of books

- 47.1 The records, books and other documents of the association must be open to inspection, free of charge, by a member of the association at any reasonable hour.
- (a) records, books and other financial documents of the association,
 - (b) this constitution,
 - (c) minutes of all committee meetings and general meetings of the association.
- 47.2 A member of the association may obtain a copy of any of the documents referred to in subclause 47.1 on payment of a fee of not more than $1 for each page copied.

48 Service of notices

- 48.1 For the purpose of these rules, a notice may be served on or given to a person:
- (a) by delivering it to the person personally, or
 - (b) by sending it by pre-paid post to the address of the person, or
 - (c) by sending it by facsimile transmission or some other form of electronic transmission to an address specified by the person for giving or serving the notice.
- 48.2 for the purpose of these rules, a notice is taken, unless the contrary is proved, to have been given or served:
- (a) in the case of a notice given or served personally, on the date on which it is received by the addressee, and
 - (b) in the case of a notice sent by pre-paid post, on the date when it would have been delivered in the ordinary course of post, and
 - (c) in the case of a notice sent by facsimile transmission or some other form of electronic transmission, on the date it was sent, or if the machine from which the transmission was sent produces a report indicating that the notice was sent on a later date, on that date.

49 Financial reporting year

The financial year of the association is:

- (a) the period of time commencing on the date of incorporation of the association and ending on the following 30 June, and
- (b) each period of 12 months after the expiration of the previous financial year of the association, commencing on 1 July and ending on the following 30 June.

Note: Schedule 1 of the Act provides that an association's constitution is to address the association's financial year.
